1. About LeMans24h.com

LeMans24h.com is an independent historical reference website dedicated to the 24 Hours of Le Mans. Its primary purpose is to make more than a century of race history easier to explore, understand and compare.

Le Mans is more than a single annual motor race. It is a continuing story of technical development, courage, endurance, innovation, rivalry and human achievement. LeMans24h.com therefore combines results with the wider context that makes those results meaningful.

What you can find on the website

LeMans24h.com is being developed as a database-driven reference resource containing, among other things:

- race results and entry lists from across Le Mans history
- profiles of drivers, teams, cars and manufacturers
- information about classes, engines, tyres and technical relationships
- statistics covering victories, podiums, starts, finishes and records
- dedicated coverage of Danish drivers, teams and achievements
- historical articles, explanations and facts that place the data in context.

A reference resource - not a news website

The website is primarily a historical reference resource. Its focus is therefore on documentation, statistics and long-term useful content rather than fast-moving news. Content may be expanded, corrected or refined when better sources become available.

Sources and quality control

Information is compiled from historical result lists, motorsport archives, publicly available sources and specialist reference works. Where sources disagree, the aim is to use the best documented and most internally consistent interpretation.

Even a carefully maintained database may contain errors, historical name variations or information that is later corrected. Documented corrections are therefore welcome. Whenever possible, please include an official result, programme, photograph, archive reference or another verifiable source.

Independence and rights

LeMans24h.com is an independent project and is not the official website of the Automobile Club de l'Ouest (ACO), the FIA World Endurance Championship or any organisation, team or manufacturer unless explicitly stated otherwise.

Names, logos, trademarks and images remain the property of their respective rights holders. Material is used only where an appropriate basis exists, and rights holders are welcome to contact the website regarding attribution or use.

Funding and advertising

The website is free to use. To help cover hosting, development and maintenance costs, LeMans24h.com may later display discreet advertising, use relevant affiliate links or enter into suitable partnerships. Commercial arrangements must not influence historical data or editorial judgement.

Contact and contributions

You are welcome to contact LeMans24h.com if you find an error, can contribute historical documentation, wish to suggest an improvement or would like to discuss a relevant collaboration. Please see the contact page for current contact details.

2. Privacy Policy

Customise before publication: This text is a comprehensive template. Before publication, complete every bracketed field and ensure that the policy matches the website's actual technical setup, including contact forms, hosting, Google Analytics, consent management and advertising.

1. Data controller

The controller responsible for processing personal data on LeMans24h.com is:

- Email: info@lemans24h.com
- Website: <https://lemans24h.com/>

2. Personal data that may be processed

Depending on how you use the website, the following categories of information may be processed:

- technical information such as IP address, browser, device, operating system, time and requested pages
- traffic and usage data from Google Analytics, including approximate location, sessions and interactions
- your name, email address and message if you contact the website
- information you voluntarily submit, such as historical corrections, documents, photographs or collaboration proposals
- cookie preferences and consent status where a consent platform is used.

3. Purposes and legal bases

Personal data is processed only for specified and legitimate purposes:

- Operation and security: to deliver the website, diagnose faults, prevent abuse and maintain stable operation. The legal basis will normally be the legitimate interest in secure and reliable operation.
- Responding to enquiries: to read, assess and respond to messages. The basis will normally be legitimate interests or steps taken at the individual's request.
- Analytics and improvement: Google Analytics is used only after valid consent where consent is required. The purpose is to understand website use and improve structure, content and functionality.
- Documentation and corrections: material voluntarily submitted for historical or editorial purposes is processed to assess and potentially incorporate the contribution.
- Legal obligations and claims: information may be processed or retained where necessary to comply with law or establish, exercise or defend legal claims.

4. Google Analytics

LeMans24h.com uses Google Analytics 4 for website statistics. A standard web implementation may collect the number of users, session statistics, approximate geolocation, browser and device information and interaction data. Google Analytics uses the first-party `_ga` cookie to distinguish users and sessions.

Analytics tags should be activated only after the visitor has provided the required consent. Refusing analytics cookies must not prevent access to ordinary website content. Consent must be as easy to withdraw as it is to give.

Google processes information as a service provider. LeMans24h.com must maintain appropriate contractual and transfer arrangements and configure the service in line with applicable requirements. Google Analytics must not be used to transmit information that directly identifies an individual.

5. Hosting, server logs and security

The website is hosted by NORDICWAY.DK. The hosting environment may automatically record server logs, including IP address, time, requested URL, browser details and error messages. Logs are used for operation, troubleshooting and security.

6. Contact forms and email

When you contact LeMans24h.com, the information you choose to provide is processed. Do not send sensitive personal information in an ordinary email or contact form. Enquiries are retained only for as long as needed to handle the matter and document relevant correspondence.

Ordinary enquiries are normally deleted no later than [INSERT PERIOD, E.G. 12 MONTHS] after closure. Correspondence with accounting, contractual or legal relevance may be kept longer where required.

7. Recipients and processors

Information may be processed by suppliers providing hosting, email, analytics, security or consent management. Where they act as processors, they may process data only on documented instructions and for the agreed purposes.

- Nordicway or the current hosting provider
- Google Ireland Limited / relevant Google entities for Google Analytics

8. Transfers outside the EU/EEA

Some suppliers may process information outside the EU/EEA. Such transfers must rely on a valid transfer mechanism, such as an adequacy decision, the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses or another lawful mechanism. The relevant service and supplier documentation should be reviewed on an ongoing basis.

9. Retention

Personal data is not retained for longer than necessary. Retention depends on purpose.

- Google Analytics data
- cookie consent records
- server logs: [INSERT PERIOD]
- ordinary enquiries
- material submitted for historical documentation may be retained longer where a legitimate archival or documentation purpose applies.

10. Your rights

Depending on the circumstances, you may have rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability and objection. Where processing is based on consent, consent may be withdrawn without affecting the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal.

Requests may be sent to [INSERT EMAIL]. A response will normally be provided within one month. Additional information may be requested to verify identity and prevent disclosure to the wrong person.

11. Complaints

If you are dissatisfied with how your personal data is handled, please contact LeMans24h.com. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency (Datatilsynet) or another competent supervisory authority.

12. Changes

This policy may be updated when functions, suppliers or legal requirements change. The current version will be published on this page together with the date of the latest update.

3. Cookie Policy

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files or similar technologies stored on your computer, phone or other device when you visit a website. They may be used to operate the website, remember choices, measure traffic or support advertising.

First-party cookies are set by the website you visit. Third-party technologies are supplied by external services. Some cookies expire when the browser is closed, while others remain for a defined period.

2. Categories used

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are required for basic operation, security or to remember cookie choices. They may normally be used without consent where they are strictly necessary to provide a service explicitly requested by the visitor.

Analytics cookies

Analytics cookies help explain how visitors use the website. LeMans24h.com uses Google Analytics 4 to measure visits, sessions, pages, approximate geographic area, browser and device information. Analytics cookies are activated only after consent.

Marketing cookies

LeMans24h.com does not use marketing cookies at the time this version is prepared unless this changes through a future introduction of Google AdSense or other advertising services. If marketing cookies are introduced, the cookie policy and consent mechanism must be updated before activation.

3. Cookies used by LeMans24h.com

Cookie	Provider	Purpose	Type	Typical lifetime
_ga	Google Analytics	Distinguishes users and sessions for traffic statistics.	Analytics	Typically up to 2 years
ga<measurement-id>	Google Analytics	Maintains session state and measurement information for the relevant GA4 property.	Analytics	Typically up to 2 years
Consent cookie [NAME]	LeMans24h.com / consent platform	Stores the visitor's cookie choices.	Strictly necessary	[INSERT ACTUAL LIFETIME]

The table must be verified by an actual cookie scan after the consent platform has been implemented. Only cookies that are genuinely set should appear in the published version.

4. Consent and changing your choices

On the first visit, you must be able to accept or reject optional cookies. Rejection must be as easy as acceptance, and optional choices must not be preselected. You must also be able to change or withdraw consent through a permanent link, such as “Cookie settings”, in the website footer.

Withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal. No new analytics or marketing data should be collected after consent has been withdrawn.

5. Deleting or blocking cookies

You may also delete or block cookies in your browser settings. The procedure depends on the browser and device. Blocking all cookies may reduce functionality on some websites, but ordinary content on LeMans24h.com should remain accessible without analytics or marketing cookies.

6. Google Analytics

Google Analytics uses the _ga cookie to distinguish users and sessions. When analytics storage is disabled through a correctly implemented consent setup, Google Analytics does not store the client ID in the _ga cookie. The actual setup should be tested in browser developer tools before launch.

7. Changes and contact

This policy will be updated if new services, cookies or advertising functions are introduced. Questions may be sent to info@lemans24h.com.

4. Contact

LeMans24h.com welcomes questions, comments and documented corrections. The website is a long-term reference project, and constructive feedback plays an important part in improving the database.

Errors and corrections

If you find an incorrect result, misspelled name, missing driver, wrong car model or another possible error, please describe it as precisely as possible.

A useful correction should ideally include:

- the relevant page or URL
- the information you believe is incorrect
- the corrected information
- a source or supporting document where possible.

Historical material

Programmes, result sheets, photographs, entry lists and other historical material may be valuable. Please do not send material you are not entitled to share. Include its origin, year and any attribution requirements where known.

Collaboration, press and advertising

Relevant enquiries concerning collaboration, research, press, historical projects, discreet advertising or motorsport-related partnerships are welcome. LeMans24h.com reserves the right to accept only collaborations consistent with the website's purpose and independence.

Contact details

- Email: info@lemans24h.com
- Suggested subject for corrections: "Correction for LeMans24h.com"
- Expected response time: 10-30 days

Please do not send sensitive personal information. Information contained in enquiries is processed as described in the Privacy Policy.

5. Implementation and Publication Checklist

Before publishing:

- Verify that all contact details are correct.
- Check that the Privacy Policy and Cookie Policy reflect the website's actual functionality.
- Confirm that Google Analytics only loads after the required cookie consent has been obtained.
- Ensure that links to the downloadable PDF documents are working.
- Test the contact form and email address.
- Verify that the website uses HTTPS and that all pages are accessible.
- Review the policies whenever new services, advertising or tracking technologies are introduced.
- Update the documents whenever legislation or website functionality changes.

6. Official Sources and References

The information on LeMans24h.com is based on research from official and well-established historical sources whenever possible. Primary references include the Automobile Club de l'Ouest (ACO), official race publications, recognised historical archives, contemporary race reports and other respected motorsport reference works.

Statistics and historical information are continuously reviewed and corrected when new verified information becomes available. Visitors who identify inaccuracies or can contribute documented historical information are encouraged to contact LeMans24h.com.

This website is an independent historical reference project and is not affiliated with, endorsed by or officially connected to the Automobile Club de l'Ouest (ACO) unless explicitly stated.
